Scott Span of Tolero Solutions Joins Workplace Stars as a Consultant Licensee

Scott Span, MSOD, from Tolero Solutions has become Workplace Stars' new Consultant Licensee. He met with Bob Ebers, founder of Workplace Stars, through his organization development colleagues and found that much of what Organization360 could offer was exactly what Span wanted to bring to his clients. As opposed to the assessment strategies used in the past, Span says that Organization 360 proved to be cost effective and simple to use. Bob says of Span, "Scott is an esteemed and accomplished OD practitioner. It's an honor to have him and Tolero Solutions as part of our global licensee network."

Tolero Solutions' #1 priority is to help people and organizations become more focused, responsive and effective. With Organization360, Span found that it helped organizations in "employee engagement and retention [which] is an ongoing area of focus for [his] clients." He also states, "the simplicity, detailed research and data, and support that Workplace Stars provides are all reasons [he] became a STAR member." With this new partnership, Span plans to use the Organization360 to continue to help organizations improve. He will also use his expertise to help improve the tools Workplace Stars will provide. Span hopes that these tools will help "grow partnerships and expand the Workplace Stars community" in the future.
